..... There is no way to know Dempsey's depth of knowledge about the political and religious imperialism contained in Islam's "sacred" Quran and Islamic Sharia law, except by his pronouncements and actions. A former CIA case officer and strategic policy and intelligence expert, Claire M. Lopez, has analyzed General Dempsey's pronouncements and actions in regard to the study of Islam by U.S. military officers in preparation to fight Islamic jihadists:

“The final bastion of America's defense against Islamic jihad and sharia, the Pentagon, fell to the enemy in April 2012, with the issuance of a letter from General Martin E. Dempsey, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, re-issuing his earlier order that all Department of Defense (DoD) course content be scrubbed to ensure no lingering remnant of disrespect to Islam. [What Dempsey prohibited was doing such “disrespectful” things as quoting the Quran and Sharia verbatim regarding jihad.]

“All U.S. military Combatant Commands, Services, the National Guard Bureau and Joint Staff are under Dempsey's Muslim Brotherhood-dictated orders to ensure that henceforth, no U.S. military course will ever again teach truth about Islam that the jihadist enemy finds offensive (or just too informative). To all intents and purposes, DoD Secretary Leon E. Panetta likewise has acquiesced to a Muslim Brotherhood takeover of U.S. military education.”

Dempsey's unprecedented censorship order to deprive U.S. forces, training to fight jihadists, of vital information about an existential enemy can be directly traced to the October 19, 2011 letter to the White House, signed by 57 Muslim organizations. This letter demanded that all training materials not meeting their approval be “purged” from the curricula of FBI and U.S. military schools, and that instructors “guilty” of teaching the Islamic Sharia to U.S. military officers be “purged” and “effectively disciplined.”
