It was 1962 when the slippery slope began. Eight lawyers decided that after 170 years saying a prayer in school was "illegal." The real sin was that Americans accepted this verdict by 8 men who belong to the most disrespected profession in America. A profession known for it's lack of compassion and twisted and cold thinking. A profession that has taken total control of the government and dictates the culture and the freedoms it so chooses thru the laws THEY make and administer and the THEIR courts which pass final judgement no matter what the people want or vote for. These are the men that now rule America. And a weakened and emasculated citizenry just stands idly by and accepts every decision protesting with plenty of talk and NO ACTION.

"I don't remember a single school shooting when I was a kid. What I do remember is our teacher having us begin the day reciting the pledge of allegiance, reading from the Bible and praying. We also had the Ten Commandments on the wall.

Maybe getting rid of those things wasn't such a good idea after all!"
